Response to Office Action

Dear Mr. To,

I filed my patent application in your office, INTEGRATED DATABASE DATA EDITING SYSTEM, on 10/02/2000 (#09/677,493). I sent the latest Clean Version of Amendment to you on 09/27/2004. Attached is the updated Reference List.

This letter is to response to your office action mailed to me on 02/14/2006. I have sent the "Appeal Brief" and other papers to your office on 03/15/2005, 09/27/2004, 02/19/2004, 01/05/2004, 05/29/2003, 02/27/2003 and 08/12/2002, in responding to your office actions mailed to me on 03/04/2005, 02/12/2004, 08/12/2003, 05/21/2003, 02/13/2003 and 08/01/2002. We also have had several telephone conversations and exchanged emails many times regarding my patent application.

The following is my detailed response to each item of your "Detailed Action":

#2. My present invention is related to an integrated database data editing system for editing and managing the relational database data contents remotely through intranet or Internet in an efficient and easy-to-use manner. The editing system contains a client computer visual graphic user interfaces and tools to input, output, modify, update and manage the database data and is extremely useful for editing the large database objects.
